NEW MEXICO ART MARKET QUARTERLY

Mrs. Brown's Clowns &
AIM HIGH ENTERTAINMENT

To Whom It May Concern:

Our premier evening Farmers' Market in 2009 was a huge success - over 14,000 people attended! Thousands more saw our signage as they drove along I-25, First Street, and Santa Fe Avenue, the busiest and most visible downtown streets in Pueblo! With over 34 vendors we are the largest Farmers Market in Southern Colorado from Colorado Springs to the New Mexico Border! In 2010, we expect even more vendors and Sponsors! We offer Radio, Television and Billboard promotion of our event and tie in with local non-profit organizations to help co-promote awareness of the diverse cultural awareness of arts, performing arts, and sustainability-organizations in Southern Colorado. We welcome you to participate in 2010!

As a sponsor, you will benefit from an extensive marketing and PR campaign – done by the experts – our marketing and media staff that have a combined 25-plus years of experience. Our planned marketing campaign includes:

- Stories/Print-Advertisements in:
 - That's Natural!
 - PULP
 - The Pueblo Chieftain
 - The Huerfano Journal
 - The La Junta Tribune
 - The Colorado Springs Independent
- Radio Campaign on KCSJ 590 & KRCC (15-25 spots per week)
- Co-Sponsored Billboard with the Sangre de Cristo Arts & Conference Center
- Co-Sponsored Banner on Main Theater building (with SDCACC)
- Live Announcements from the MC during the Farmers' Market every week
- PR Campaign that will include press releases to all area print publications, PSAs to all local radio stations, live remotes with local radio stations, and media coverage from local news-stations.
- Dedicated Advertisements and Links on That's Natural's website: www.ThatsNatural.info
- A State-of-the-Art Facebook and Twitter Campaign that will extensively reach the online resources for our community.

Our target audiences include: Baby-Boomers/Generation Xers/Moms and Families - all who want to keep their dollar here in the Community and learn about Sustainability. Please see the additional sheet for specific benefits of sponsorship. We look forward to working with you to support our community and build our local economy.

Sincerely,

Tisha T. Casida
